A grade of C- is required for progression or transfer.

Note that SPCH 207 has NO final exam. The final grade is based entirely upon course work. Your participation grade will depend upon several factors: being present in class and remaining for the full class session every week; making useful contributions to discussions, oral critiques, and in-class individual and group activities; and being a co-operative, engaged, and supportive member of the learning community.

Students who do not complete all the required work should not expect to pass the course.

Performance Requirements

Presentations and speeches will be assessed on content, clarity, organization, speaking skills, and effective use of technology and other visual aids. Students will also offer feedback to others and engage in self-evaluation after each speech or presentation. Rubrics for instructor, student, and self-assessment will be distributed with each assignment.

All written work will be due at 11:59 p.m. on the due date. Written work submitted the following day will be accepted until 11:59 p.m. with a 10% penalty for lateness; after 11:59 p.m. it will be REFUSED. All written work must be typed in 12-pt Times New Roman, double spaced, and submitted to the appropriate drop box on Moodle.

Students will be evaluated on the following speeches:

1. Introductory speech: Describe your interest in science
2. Process analysis speech: Explain how to perform a technical or scientific task
3. Advocacy speech: Persuade or motivate listeners to act on an issue of environmental importance
4. Scientific explanation speech: Explain a scientific process or principle
5. Interview presentation: Develop and present your resume and job skills and respond extemporaneously to interview questions
6. Research project presentation: Develop and carry out a research project on an environmental issue and then present your findings in an interactive group presentation

Throughout the course, we will watch videos of public speakers to critique the style, presentation techniques, and content of each speech. You will also select and watch some speeches on your own for analysis and discussion.

During the term, you will choose an online TED talk (at least 15 minutes) on a scientific topic to show to the class. You will sign up for one class to introduce, present, and lead a discussion about the talk, focusing on its style and content. You will also submit a two-page response paper to explain your choice and to summarize the relevance of the video as an example of good public speaking.

Performance Requirements and Student Services

Student Responsibilities

It is your responsibility as a student to contact the Office of the Registrar to complete the forms for Withdrawal or Change of Registration, and any other forms. Please refer to the list of important dates as noted in the Academic Schedule in the Keyano College credit calendar. The Keyano College credit calendar also has information about Student Rights and Code of Conduct. It is the responsibility of each student to be aware of the guidelines outlined in the Student Rights and Code of Conduct Policies.

Student Attendance

Class attendance is useful for two reasons. First, class attendance maximizes a student's learning experience. Second, attending class is a good way to keep informed of matters relating to the administration of the course (e.g., the timing of assignments and exams). Ultimately, you are responsible for your own learning and performance in this course.

It is the responsibility of each student to be prepared for all classes. Students who miss classes are responsible for the material covered in those classes and for ensuring that they are prepared for the next class, including the completion of any assignments and notes that may be due.

Academic Misconduct

Students are considered to be responsible adults and should adhere to principles of intellectual integrity. Intellectual dishonesty may take many forms, such as:

- Plagiarism or the submission of another person's work as one's own;
- The use of unauthorized aids in assignments or examinations (cheating);
- Collusion or the unauthorized collaboration with others in preparing work;
- The deliberate misrepresentation of qualifications;
- The willful distortion of results or data;
- Substitution in an examination by another person;
- Handing in the same unchanged work as submitted for another assignment; and
- Breach of confidentiality.

The consequences for academic misconduct range from a verbal reprimand to expulsion from the College. More specific descriptions and details are found in the Student Rights and Code of Conduct section of the Keyano College credit calendar. It is the responsibility of each student to be aware of the guidelines outlined in the Student Rights and Code of Conduct Policies.

In order to ensure your understanding of the concept of plagiarism, you must successfully complete the online tutorial found on ilearn.keyano.ca. Then print the certificate, sign it, and show it to each of your instructors. Your course work may not be graded until you show this signed certificate.
