STAYING IN CANADA

Post-Graduate Work Permit Program (PGWPP)

The Post-Graduation Work Permit (PGWP) Program enables students who have successfully graduated from eligible Canadian designated learning institutions (DLIs) to obtain an open work permit to gain invaluable Canadian work experience. This real-world training acquired through the program plays a crucial role in helping new graduates meet the work experience criteria for various permanent residency programs in Canada. The length of the Post-Graduation Work Permit is typically determined based on the duration of the student's program of study for international students.

- At least 8 months and less than 2 years (example: certificate programs):
Up to one year PGWP
- 2 years or longer (example: diploma and bachelor's programs):
Three years PGWP

For more information and the most up-to-date information on PGWP eligibility and other criteria, visit keyano.ca/PGWPP

PATHWAYS TO PERMANENT RESIDENCY

Upon graduation, international students have a multitude of pathways to explore for obtaining permanent residency in Canada. Some of the most common and promising options include Canadian Express Class and other Canadian Express Entry Programs, Provincial Nominee Programs for Alberta, and Workforce Immigration and Support Program for Fort McMurray Residents/Workers.

Alberta Advantage Immigration Programs (AAIP)

The Alberta Immigrant Nominee Program (AINP) is an important economic immigration initiative that aims to nominate individuals intending to settle in Alberta for permanent residency. This program offers various pathways for eligible candidates to pursue. For more detailed information on provincial nominee programs, please visit our official website: keyano.ca/immigration.

Workforce Immigration & Support Program (WISP)

The WISP Fort McMurray's community approach to the Government of Alberta's Rural Renewal Stream. The program is geared towards graduate international students at Keyano College, temporary workers, and newcomers on a work visa by assisting local employers with the current labour shortage. For more information, check out the website: fmwb.ca/WISP.

IMMIGRATION AND INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS SUPPORT

International Education, Global Citizenship & Student Life department is available to assist all registered international students with questions regarding study permits, post-graduation work permits, visas and other immigration issues and questions.
